Money to be raised for Twin Towers Fund

Steiner Sports Marketing and the Twin Towers Fund have announced that former New York City Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani, chairman of the board of the Twin Towers Fund and New York Yankees manager Joe Torre will sign a limited number of commemorative memorabilia to raise funds that will provide financial assistance to 436 families of rescue workers who perished on Sept. 11.

Giuliani and Torre will sign a total of 2,911 items which will only be available for sale on www.steinersports.com or at 1-800-759-SCOR(7267). Signed baseballs by the two will sell for $300, while signed 16-by-20-inch photos will be sold for $400.

All proceeds beyond the hard cost of the baseballs and photos will be donated to the fund. A representative for Major League Baseball will be on hand to authenticate the signings.

"I want to thank Joe Torre for once again stepping up to the plate to help the families of our fallen heroes," said Giuliani. "With the expertise of Steiner Sports, I am sure this project will raise significant funds to benefit the families of those rescue workers who made the ultimate sacrifice in our fight for freedom."
