

Giants sign backup OT

By PAUL SCHWARTZ tank and expect him to add a dose of veteran leader-

The with they've offens cernes the wante enced day ti field, games. Whi backu tackle starts son b of low "Let easy GM E really secon a sm protes It wa puzzli We every Whi games cord l cons years the P year, as a re

On Saturday, running back Tiki Barber will take part in an event called "Dream Builders," hosted by Brandon Steiner, CEO of Steiner Sports Marketing. Steiner will host a backyard barbeque at his Scarsdale home to raise money for two charities, Family Services of Westchester's Boys Residence in White Plains and Camp Sussex in New Jersey. In addition to Barber, others in attendance will be Whitey Ford, Reggie Jackson, Wade Boggs and Don Mattingly. Tickets cost $500 for adults and $250 for children under 13, and all proceeds will go toward Camp Sussex and Family Services of Westchester. For tickets or for more information, call 914-307-1010.

and orting look oung watch Luke, e the old- the ne in the ning take called ed by O of eting. eyard sdale y for Serv- Boys Plains New Bar- lance eggie and cost O for d all ward family

The Giants are convinced the 6-5, 310-pound Whitfield has something left in the Services of Westchester. For tickets or for more information, call 914-307-1010.